

2022 Nevada REALTORS® Annual Awards Nomination Form

Award Nominating For:

- Inspiring New Leader of Tomorrow – This award will recognize an inspiring, up-and-coming, new leader of tomorrow that is actively engaged in creating a better future.
- Nevada Distinguished REALTOR® Award – The Nevada Distinguished REALTOR® Award is a prestigious award for a Nevada REALTOR® to receive. This award was born out of a desire to recognize an individual among the membership who consistently contributes to the real estate profession and to NVR. These contributions span many years and are often in places where their contributions may not be seen by the members.
- REALTOR® of the Year – The REALTOR® of the Year Award is given to a member of NVR for effort and work expended in the interest of REALTORS®, the profession, and the community.
- REALTOR® Active in Politics – The RAP award recognizes a REALTOR® who is involved politically at the local, state and national level, through service and contributions. The recipient is a dedicated person who wants to make a difference in their community and state by getting involved in the political affairs for Nevada.
- Peek-Woodcock Legacy Award – Given to an individual who has displayed a lifetime commitment to volunteerism at the local, state and national level. This individual has been dedicated to the Association and the real estate industry in protecting private property rights and promoting the best interests of the real estate profession. The deadline to nominate for this award will be Sept. 15, 2022.
