Section 2. Member at-large Dues:

- A. The annual dues of each Member at-large shall be:

The individuals disclosed on such form shall not be deemed to be licensed with the REALTOR® filing the form for purposes of this section and shall not be included in calculating the annual dues of the designated REALTOR®.

Section 3. Institute Affiliate Member Dues:

The annual dues of each Institute Affiliate Member shall be established in Article II of the Bylaws of the National Association of REALTORS®.

Section 4. Affiliate Member Dues:

The annual dues of each Affiliate Member shall be established by the Nevada REALTORS® Board of Directors.

In calculating the dues payable to the association by a designated REALTOR(r) member, non-member licensees as defined in (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall not be included in the computation of dues if the designated REALTOR(r) has paid dues based on said non-member licensees in another association in the state or a state contiguous thereto, provided the designated REALTOR(r) notifies the association in writing of the identity of the association to which dues have been remitted. In the case of a designated REALTOR(r) member in a firm, partnership, or corporation whose business activity is substantially all commercial, any assessments for non-member licensees shall be limited to licensees affiliated with the designated REALTOR(r) (as defined in (1) and (2) of this paragraph) in the office where the designated REALTOR(r) holds membership, and any other offices of the firm located within the jurisdiction of this association.

A REALTOR(r) member of a Member Board shall be held to be any member who has a place or places of business within the state or a state contiguous thereto and who, as a principal is actively engaged in the real estate profession as defined in Article III, Section 1 of the Constitution of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS(r). An individual shall be deemed to be licensed with a REALTOR(r) if the license of the individual is held by the REALTOR(r), or by any broker who is licensed with the REALTOR(r), or by any entity in which the REALTOR(r) has a direct or indirect ownership interest and which is engaged in other aspects of the real estate business (except as provided for in Section 2(a)(1) hereof) provided that such licensee is not otherwise included in the computation of dues payable by the principal of the entity.

A REALTOR(r) with a direct or indirect ownership interest in an entity engaged exclusively in soliciting and/or referring clients and customers to the REALTOR(r) for consideration on a substantially exclusive basis shall annually file with the association on a form approved by the association a list of the licensees affiliated with that entity and shall certify that all of the licensees affiliated with the entity are solely engaged in referring clients and customers and are not engaged in listing, selling, leasing, renting, managing, counseling, or appraising real property. The individuals disclosed on such form shall not be deemed to be licensed with the REALTOR(r) filing the form for purposes of this section and shall not be included in calculating the annual dues of the designated REALTOR(r). Designated REALTORS(r) shall notify the association within three (3) days of any change in status of licensees in a referral firm.

The exemption for any licensee included on the certification form shall automatically be revoked upon the individual being engaged in real estate licensed activities (listing, selling, leasing, renting, managing, counseling, or appraising real property) other than referrals, and dues for the current fiscal year shall be payable.

Membership dues shall be prorated for any licensee included on a certification form submitted to the association who during the same calendar year applies for REALTOR(r) or REALTOR-ASSOCIATE(r) membership in the association. However, membership dues shall not be prorated if the licensee held REALTOR(r) or REALTOR-ASSOCIATE(r) membership during the preceding calendar year.

Section 7. Payment of Dues:

- A. Payment for Renewing Members: Annual dues for all renewing Members of Nevada REALTORS® are due and payable in full on January 1 of each year. The dues policy allows a 90-day grace period, which gives the Local Associations until no later than April 1 for all dues to be received. If annual dues are still not received by Nevada REALTORS® by April 11, then the total penalty increases to 3%.
- B. Payment for New Members: If dues for new members are not received by Nevada REALTORS® by the date they are due, then a 1.5% penalty on the total amount due will be assessed, providing that the dues are paid within ten days of the original date due. If dues for new members are still delinquent eleven days after the original due date has passed, then the total penalty increases to 3%.
- C. - D. Penalties must be paid within ten days upon receipt of invoice. If payment of dues owed, plus any penalties due are not paid within ten days of receipt of invoice by the Local Association, then the Budget and Finance Committee will be notified, and the Nevada REALTORS® Executive Team will make contact with the Local Association regarding payment.
- E. Reports, dues and assessments for any new, provisional or reinstating Members must be received by Nevada REALTORS® no later than ten business days from the last day of the month being reported.

Section 8. New Members:

Dues collected for new Members during the year shall be prorated monthly. New members are required to pay a one-time administrative fee.

Section 9. Special Assessments:

The Board of Directors is authorized to determine the existence of an emergency requiring a special dues assessment and impose the assessment. Any such special assessment must be approved by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Board of Directors. Each REALTOR® Member of a Local Association and each Member at-large shall be subject to an assessment not to exceed $10.00 in any one calendar year in which an emergency condition may arise. Special assessments calculated for each REALTOR® Member of a Local Association are payable by each Local Association.

Section 10. Dues Amount Authority:

A change in the amount of dues for any classification of membership shall be determined by a simple majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 11. New Member Administrative Fee:

An administrative fee for new Members may be collected in an amount established by the Board of Directors. The fee shall not exceed three times the annual dues.

ARTICLE IV

Code of Ethics, Professional Standards, Discipline

Section 1. Adoption of NAR Code of Ethics:

The Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS® is adopted as the Code of Ethics of Nevada REALTORS® and shall be considered a part of its rules and regulations, and the Code of Ethics and the rules and regulations of Nevada REALTORS® shall in the future be deemed to be amended whenever NAR's Code of Ethics is amended. Nevada REALTORS® is authorized to utilize the "expedited ethics administration procedures" of NAR's Code of Ethics Manual.

Section 2. Discipline:

Any REALTOR® Member at large not subject to the regulations of any Local Association shall be subject to disciplinary action for any violation of the Code of Ethics by the appropriate Nevada REALTORS® committee. Any REALTOR® Member at large may be disciplined by the Board of Directors for violation of these Bylaws, the Code of Ethics (as stated above), or other duties of membership, after a hearing as described in NAR's Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual provided that the discipline imposed is consistent with the discipline authorized by the Professional Standards Committee of NAR as set forth in NAR's Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual.

Section 3. Professional Standards Guidelines

A. NAR Guidelines:

A Local Association, prior to referring an ethics complaint or arbitration request for review or hearing to Nevada REALTORS®, should exhaust all efforts to impanel an impartial tribunal to conduct either the original hearing or the appeal or procedural review. These efforts may include the appointment of knowledgeable Members of the Association on an ad hoc basis to serve on either a hearing Panel or on behalf of the Board of Directors. If the Local Association cannot impanel an impartial tribunal, the Local Association may refer the matter to Nevada REALTORS®, and Nevada REALTORS® may delegate to another Local Association the authority to hear the case on behalf of Nevada REALTORS®. No Local Association, however, may be required to accept this delegation of authority. If no other entity is amenable to conducting the review, Nevada REALTORS® shall be responsible for conducting the review or hearing.

B. Types of Allegations Handled:

Allegations of ethical violations and contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTORS® and between REALTORS® and their customers or clients may be submitted to Nevada REALTORS® under the following circumstances:

1. Allegations of unethical conduct made against a REALTOR® who is directly a member of Nevada REALTORS® and not a member of any Local Association.
2. Allegations of unethical conduct made against a REALTOR® and the Local Association, because of size or other valid reason, determines that it cannot provide a due process hearing of the matter and petitions Nevada REALTORS® to conduct a hearing.

3. Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTORS® who are not members of the same Association where the matter has been referred to Nevada REALTORS® by both Local Associations.
4. Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between Members at-large.
5. Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between a Member at-large and a REALTOR® who is a Member of a Local Association.
6. Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTOR® Members of the same Association where the Association with good and sufficient reason is unable to arbitrate the controversy.
 - a. Explanation: This provision is not designed to relieve a Local Association of its primary responsibility to resolve differences arising between Members of the same Association. The section recognizes that in some Associations with limited membership, usual arbitration procedures may be impossible.
7. Contractual disputes between a customer or a client and a REALTOR® where the Association with good and sufficient reason is unable to arbitrate the dispute or where the REALTOR® is a Member at-large.

C. Code of Ethics:

Professional Standards hearings and the organization and procedures incident thereto shall be governed by the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of NAR, latest edition, which by this reference is made a part of these Bylaws.

D. Complaints Pending Against Ex-Members:

1. If a REALTOR® Member resigns from Nevada REALTORS® or is otherwise terminated with an ethics complaint pending, that Board of Directors may condition the right of the Member to reapply for membership upon the applicant's certification that he/she will submit to the pending ethics proceeding and will abide by decision of the hearing panel.
2. If a REALTOR® Member resigns or membership is otherwise terminated, the duty to submit to arbitration continues in effect even after membership lapses or is terminated if the dispute arose before the Member resigns or membership is terminated.
3. Any outstanding fees or education hours not completed from an ethics violation must be paid and/or education hours completed prior to reapplying for membership.
4. Any outstanding fees from an arbitration must be paid prior to reapplying for membership.

E. Cooperative Enforcement of Code of Ethics:

The responsibility of the association and association members relating to the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, the disciplining of members, the arbitration of disputes, and the organization and procedures incident thereto, shall be consistent with the cooperative professional standards enforcement agreement entered into by the association, which by reference is made a part of these Bylaws.

Section 4. New Member Code of Ethics Orientation:

- A. Applicants for REALTOR® membership shall complete an orientation program on the Code of Ethics of not less than two hours and thirty minutes of instructional time which orientation program must meet the learning objectives and minimum criteria established from time to time by NAR. This requirement does not apply to applicants who have completed comparable orientation in another association, provided that membership has been continuous, or that any break in membership is for one year or less.
- B. Failure to satisfy this requirement within ninety (90) days of the date of application will result in denial of the membership application.

Section 5. Continuing Member Code of Ethics Training:

- A. Effective January 1, 2019, through December 31, 2021 and for successive three year periods thereafter, each REALTOR® member of the association (with the exception of REALTOR® members granted REALTOR® Emeritus status by the National Association) shall be required to complete ethics training of not less than two (2) hours and thirty (30) minutes of instructional time.
- B. This requirement will be satisfied upon presentation of documentation that the member has completed a course of instruction conducted by this or another REALTOR® association, the State Association of REALTORS®, or the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, which meets the learning objectives and minimum criteria established by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® from time to time.
- C. REALTOR® members who have completed training as a requirement of membership in another association and REALTOR® members who have completed the New Member Code of Ethics Orientation during any three year cycle shall not be required to complete additional ethics training until a new three year cycle commences.
- D. Failure to satisfy the required periodic ethics training shall be considered a violation of a membership duty. Failure to meet the requirement in any three year cycle will result in suspension of membership for the first two months (January and February) of the year following the end of any three year cycle or until the requirement is met, whichever occurs sooner. On March 1 of that year, the membership of a member who is still suspended as of that date will be automatically terminated.

Section 6. Expulsion and Suspension:

- A. Any Member whose membership is terminated and who owes money to Nevada REALTORS® must pay that money before their membership may be reinstated. Nevada REALTORS® retains the right to pursue collection of any money owed to Nevada REALTORS® even after their membership terminated.
- B. In any action taken against a REALTOR® Member for suspension or expulsion under Article V §5 of these Bylaws, notice of such action shall be given to all REALTORS® employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with such REALTOR® Member and they shall be advised the provisions of Article V §5 apply.

ARTICLE V
Use of Terms REALTOR® and REALTORS®

Section 1. Control of Use:

Use of the terms “REALTOR®” or “REALTORS®” by Nevada REALTORS® members shall be at all times subject to the provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws of the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) and to the rules and regulations prescribed by its Board of Directors. Nevada REALTORS® shall have authority to control, jointly and in full cooperation with NAR, use of the terms within those areas of the state of Nevada not within the jurisdiction of a Local Association. Section 2. Harassment:

Any member of the association may be reprimanded, placed on probation, suspended or expelled for harassment of an association or MLS employee or association officer or director after an investigation in accordance with the procedures of the association. As used in this section, harassment means any verbal or physical conduct including threatening or obscene language, unwelcome sexual advances, stalking, actions including strikes, shoves, kicks, or other similar physical contact, or threats to do the same, or any other conduct with the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance by creating a hostile, intimidating or offensive work environment. The decision of the appropriate disciplinary action to be taken shall be made by the investigatory team comprised of the president, and president-elect and/or vice president and one member of the board of directors selected by the highest ranking officer not named in the complaint, upon consultation with legal counsel for the association. Disciplinary action may include any sanction authorized in the association's Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual. If the complaint names the president, president-elect or vice president, they may not participate in the proceedings and shall be replaced by the immediate past president or, alternatively, by another member of the board of directors selected by the highest ranking officer not named in the complaint.

If you believe you have been harassed, please bring the problem to the attention of Nevada REALTORS®'s CEO. If your complaint is regarding Nevada REALTORS®'s CEO, then bring the problem to the attention of Nevada REALTORS®'s Human Resources Manager. You do not have to put your complaint in writing, but it is helpful to provide details about dates, times, places and witnesses to the harassment. All complaints will be investigated promptly.

The identity of the employee making the complaint and the identity of the individual accused of engaging in harassment will be kept strictly confidential. Information regarding the charge of harassment and the investigation of that charge will not be made known to anyone who is not directly involved either as a party, a witness, a member of the investigatory team, which may consist of Nevada REALTORS®'s Executive Team, and/or the CEO. Witnesses interviewed will only be provided with information necessary to elicit from them their observations and other relevant information of incidents they witnessed. Any written complaint of harassment that is filed will be reported to Nevada REALTORS®'s Executive Team immediately upon filing of the complaint.

The association will endeavor to prevent retaliation against you for filing a harassment claim. If your complaint of harassment is found to be without basis, appropriate measures may be taken against you. This should not discourage you from making a complaint if you believe you have been a victim of sexual, racial, religious or ethnic harassment.
